TO: Captain Stauback
From: Chief Brenda Jorgenson
Subject: Training

I have reviewed and approved your request to conduct the below training for officers under your command below the supervisory ranks. My only condition is that you maintain a force in the field on any given training day of at least ten officers who have completed their probationary periods. As you know, this is a standard condition applying to all absence situations, not just training. Do not include supervisors in this count.

| Subject | Next Training Date |
|-----------------------------|---------------------------|
| Human Relations/Sensitivity | Sunday, January 15 |
| Report Writing | Tuesday, January 17 |
| Legal Review | Monday, January 23 |

TO: Sergeant Sledge
From: Captain Stauback
Subject: Training

Sergeant,

I am assigning you to schedule the night shift's personnel for the classes listed in the attached memo from Chief Jorgenson.

You have the authority to schedule any officer, except Lieutenant Dan and yourself, and make sure to abide by the chief's wishes as stipulated in her memo to me.

Thank you for your assistance.

Capt. R. Stauback

You are Sergeant Sledge.

61. How many officers can appropriately be scheduled for the next Human Relations/Sensitivity training class?
- A. Two
 - B. Three
 - C. Five
 - D. Six
62. If you decide not to schedule anyone for the next Human Relations/Sensitivity training class, and assuming no one else requests leave time, how many officers on the Night Shift will be on their posts for the evening shift on that day, excluding anyone above the rank of police officer?
- A. Eighteen
 - B. Sixteen
 - C. Fifteen
 - D. Thirteen
63. If you decide to schedule only Officer Ramirez for the next Report Writing training class, how many additional officers, below the rank of sergeant who are not on probation, may be granted time off on that date?
- A. Six
 - B. Four
 - C. Three
 - D. Two
64. Officers Gomez, Mickey, and Carlos have demonstrated deficiencies in their legal citations and so you have decided to send them to the next Legal Review training class. How many other officers in addition to these three may attend the Legal Review?
- A. Two
 - B. Four
 - C. Six
 - D. Eight

65. Assuming that you have sent the maximum allowable officers to the Legal Review training, which of the following officers must be among those who attend that training?
